The Plain Clothes Pistol Tactics for Protective Details Course -

The Protective Details Course spans 8 hours and is eligible for TCOLE credit. It's meticulously crafted for Peace Officers who carry firearms in off-duty or plain clothes capacities. The curriculum delves deeply into shooting techniques from various positions, ensuring officers are proficient and adaptable in real-world situations. Emphasizing readiness for ambush scenarios, participants will learn practical responses honed specifically for concealed carry situations.

Instructors guide students through a range of shooting positions, instilling both accuracy and agility. Through dynamic scenarios, officers will develop the decision-making skills crucial for navigating unexpected threats. Techniques for effectively drawing from concealed holsters and swiftly engaging targets are continuously covered.

Furthermore, the course doesn't stop at marksmanship. It also drills participants on the immediate aftermath of encounters, including communication protocols with on-duty colleagues and methods for safely controlling suspects. Whether in plain clothes or off-duty scenarios, officers will emerge equipped with a comprehensive toolkit to handle the complexities of real-world situations.

Student will need:

- 250 rounds of ammunition
- Holster with a single retention or more
(no cloth, lower back or ankle holsters)
- Minimum one extra magazine for off duty pistol
- Wear a T-shirt type top and be able to conceal your weapon
- Button up shirt to wear over t-shirt and simulate a jacket
- Water/snacks
- Closed toe shoes
- Appropriate weather wear
